

Artists: Lorraine Brown and Narelle Thomas

STOP THINK RESPECT

Can you answer YES to all of these questions?

YES

- I know and agree with how my money is spent
- I can spend time yarning with family and friends
- My care needs are met
- I feel safe at home

If you answered NO, help is available.

Ageing and Disability Abuse Helpline

1800 628 221

Monday to Friday | 9am to 5pm

RESPECT

Lorraine Brown and Narelle Thomas

Artists: Lorraine Brown a Yuin/Gunai Kurnai women of the East Coast Saltwater People, and the premier artist of the Coomaditchie United Aboriginal Corporation.

Narelle Thomas is Lorraine's sister. As artists they often work together, "one leads and one follows and no-one steps on any toes".

Artwork: Respect

"The artwork is inspired by stopping abuse of any kind to our elderly community. Our Elders are the pride of our people. They are the knowledge holders of our past. Stop, Think, and Respect. The concentric circles represent the specialness of our Elders. We should care for them and listen".

Ageing and Disability Abuse Helpline

1800 628 221

Monday to Friday | 9am to 5pm

